"ANE DOE" SKETCHED FROM LIFE IN HUDSON COUNTY JAIL.

Despie the fact that she may be sentenced to 120 years in prison, "Jane Doe" spends most of her waking hours in one of the corridors of the Hudson County Jail, playing with a white cat. She is the young woman arrested in Hobokei, July 1, charged with passing counterfeit silve, dollars, and who refused to make known her identity to the police. The detectives offered to make her punishment exceedingly light if she would betray her alleged "pals," but she aughed at them. The only time she lost her temper and made faces at her keepers was when they took her picture for the Rogues' Gallery. After she had nearly cracked the photographer's camera, they took her to the Hudson, County Jail, and there she will remain until the September term of the Hudson

Jane Doe" sat on the only banch in one of the white-washed corridors of the jail yesterday. She was in the very best of spirits and when her allor entered the corridor, she greeted him with a smile. All unconscious of the fact that an artist was sketching her, Miss Doe continued to smile. Later on she refused to talk for pub-

Because I have no statement to make, save that I am imposent of the charge made against me, and have never been in prison before. No, I don't think the police had the right to take my photograph for the Rogues' Gallery; but then, you know, the police do many things that are not legal. I will not give my name and I will not tell you anything of my past. I repeat, that I, 'Jane Doe,' will not make a statement to any one, Jane is about twenty-five years old, of medium height and stout. Her fac is perfectly oval; her forehead nigh and broad. She has arched eyebrows, large black eyes, nose inclined to be Roman, but well formed; mouth in size; thin upper lip; regular, white teeth, and rounded chin. Her complexion is George R. Bagg, of the Secret Service, testified at the woman's hearing, before Commissioner Romaine, the
